

Local Delegates Attend Amarillo Tourist Meeting

Five Canyon delegates attended the area-wide convention in Amarillo which was for the purpose of explaining various tourist attractions located here. Those in attendance were Clark Jarnagin, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Mrs. W. E. Parker, Gus Fontaine, M. J. Morris, and Lawrence Hunnicutt of The Canyon News staff.

The meeting was held primarily for the purpose of explaining the importance of being courteous to tourists. In addition to this it was also pointed out that it was equally important for people from various parts of the Plains to give wider publicity to spots of attraction.

But the main thing is to make the tourist feel at home when he is in your part of the country, was a theory expounded at the meeting.

Spokesman for the Canyon area was Mrs. Parker. She explained the scenic beauty of the Palo Duro Canyon; the nostalgic atmosphere surrounding the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum and the importance of West Texas State College.

Mrs. Parker explained why she was living in this vicinity. She was on her way to California for her health, she explained, that the trip became tiresome and she asked the conductor for a suggestion about a nice place to get off and rest. The conductor suggested Amarillo and so that's where she left the train. After spending a few days in this area she decided it was the place to live so she settled and went into business in Canyon.

The proceedings got under way at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon and were climaxed with a free chicken dinner at 6:30 that evening. There were delegates from New Mexico and Oklahoma as well as Texas.

Betty Jo Cone Hurt In Car Collision

Betty Jo Cone and her nephew, 3-year-old Todd Cone, were on their way to Shattuck, Okla., when they were involved in a two car collision at Panhandle Sunday morning. The wreck occurred on Highway 60, about 10:15 o'clock Sunday morning.

Todd Cone suffered a broken right ankle. Betty Jo Cone was brought to Neblett Hospital and treated for bruises. She suffered no broken bones and was released from the hospital about 12:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

The car was described as a total loss.

Clerk's Office Unique Wedding Ceremony Scene

Personnel in the county clerk's office were surprised last Thursday afternoon when a unique type of wedding ceremony was performed in that office.

The wedding party consisted of four Negroes, the couple getting married and a couple who accompanied them. The male member of the party who was not the bridegroom was a minister and he performed the ceremony. The party simply backed into a corner of the county clerk's office and proceeded with the wedding.

The couple who were married were Conley D. Dean and Thelma Helen Jackson. The minister who performed the ceremony was Rev. A. J. Williams. After the wedding the party was observed taking snapshots of the court house as well as each other.

Classroom Teachers Schedule Meeting

The Nominating Committee will present the list of officers to be voted on for the 1952-53 school term. A social hour will conclude the meeting.

Mrs. R. E. Ball, president, urges every member to be present in order that he may have a voice in the important proceedings of the evening.

Fifty-Sixth Year

Canyon, Texas Wednesday, March 26, 1952

Number 50

March 31 Is Last Day for School Census

Has your child been enumerated in the school census?

If you live in the Canyon Independent School District and your child will be of scholastic age on September 1, 1952, you should have him enumerated at once.

Children who will have reached the age of six years on September 1, but who will not have reached their 18th birthday should be registered by their parents.

It matters not where they may be going to school next year, or what your intentions are about moving from the district during the year, this district is their home now and in order that the district where they will attend school next year may receive the per capita from the state, they must be enumerated. You have the right to transfer a child if you leave the district before September 1st.

The example of the Canyon Independent School District applies to all school districts in Texas. Regardless of where you are now living, be sure that your child is enumerated if he will be of scholastic age.

Lee Foster, census enumerator, states that the hardest problems he has to face is in families where there are several children and one of them will have reached his sixth year by September 1. Parents overlook the necessity of enumerating this child, but the school district needs all of the money that may be secured.

Those having children who will become six years of age on or before September 1, 1952, and have not enumerated them should get in touch with Mr. Foster.

P-TA Conference to Be Held Here on April 22nd and 23rd

The annual spring conferences of the 16 districts of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers will get under way the last of March and continue for a month. The administration theme, "Safeguarding Our Freedoms Through Responsible Citizenship," will be stressed throughout the conference programs.

Districts help to integrate the work of local associations with the state and national plans and activities. At the conferences reports are made by local units, and opportunity is afforded delegates for contacts with state, district, county and local leaders from whom they receive information and inspiration.

The conference in the 8th District will be held in Canyon April 22-23 under the direction of District President, Mrs. O. K. Smith of Childress. Mrs. H. G. Stinnett, State Representative, will be present.

"Calling All Cars," by Jay Tobias is the play to be presented by the seniors of Happy High School on Friday night, March 28. The play will begin promptly at 8 o'clock in the evening in the auditorium of the high school. The play has been described as "a frolicsome in three hilarious acts."

The cast is made up of more than a dozen boys and girls of the senior class in Happy. ## W. T. Ex Killed In Car Accident Near Amarillo

Dr. V. Jack Kessey of Panhandle was killed Sunday evening near Amarillo when his car was wrecked by another Amarillo car. Dr. Kessey was a practicing osteopathic surgeon of Panhandle.

Riding with Dr. Kessey was Clyde Poston of Panhandle who was injured and taken to an Amarillo hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Kessey and Mrs. Poston were in another car and did not know of the accident until they reached home.

Kessey was a star football player of the Buffalo team while a student here. His wife was the former Betty Martin of Groom, also a student in WT. The couple have a 2½ month-old baby. Kessey's former home was in Pampa.

Dr. Jack Walker was listed as one of the pall bearers at the funeral.

City Election Will Be Held Tuesday

The regular city election will be held on next Tuesday, April 1st. Voters in Canyon are urged to go to the polls and cast a vote of confidence in the present city commission.

There is only one list of candidates printed on the official ballot:

For Mayor, Andy Walsh.
For Commissioners, Herschel Coffee and O. W. Parker.

In view of the fact that it will be necessary to vote a bond issue during the coming year for a new sewer plant, it is necessary that a large vote be cast in this election. Bond buyers look over the results of city elections and make a better bid on bonds which are issued in those municipalities in which there is interest in the city government shown by citizens in the size of the vote cast.

Engineers are now working on plans for the new sewer disposal plant within a few months.

The contract for the present disposal is up early next year, and it will be necessary to have the new plant in operation by the time the contract is up.

Nash C. Hix Died Monday Afternoon; Funeral on Tuesday

Nash C. Hix, 65, died Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at a Lubbock hospital. He had been in poor health for the past 15 months.

He is survived by one brother, L. L. Hix of Canyon, and one sister, Mrs. L. D. Winn of Canyon; two nephews, J. Spencer Winn of Thermopolis, Wyoming, and Bruce Winn of Canyon; his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Bill Parsley of Lubbock and Mary Hix of Abernathy; one grandson.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon in Abernathy, conducted by Rev. George E. Turrentine of Amarillo, assisted by Rev. Travis Darby, pastor of the Abernathy Methodist Church.

12th Registered Cow Is Shot by Careless Hunters

Arch Hunsley states that a group of beer drinkers gathered at the new bridge north of Canyon Sunday, emptied their cans; threw them over in his field, and then started to shoot with a high powered .22 rifle.

During the target practice one of his registered Hereford cows was hit and killed. This makes the 12th cow which has been killed by careless hunters on his place.

Arch is offering a reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the parties who shot the cow.

Bullets from a .22 will kill a man one mile away, according to instructions printed on every box.

The beer drinkers in the party used no judgment as they started shooting without looking as to where the cattle were grazing at the time.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. King, Jr. spent the week end in Estelline in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Power.

R. L. Glanton visited in the home of his parents in Hale Center Thursday.

Expansion Plans Put Into Action By Local C of C

Last week Chamber of Commerce members received a pleasant surprise in the way of promotion material. A small brown paper bag was sent to each member. On the outside of the bag in bold, black letters were the words, "It's in the Bag." The thing that was in the bag was the outline for what had to be done in order that the hopes and ambitions for continued progress could be realized in 1952.

Those who help in the program are buying a share of 1952 model progress for the community. Literally the program was a blue print for the coming year. There were general suggestions about what should be done for the rural community surrounding Canyon. Under civic improvement there were suggestions to make the town a better and more enjoyable place in which to live.

The other two suggestions on the program concerned the trade development and the highways in the vicinity of Canyon. In the trade development there was the suggestion to encourage and welcome any and all new business enterprises. It was also suggested to beautify the highways and promote more traffic. The latter to be done through more extensive publicity.

Twelve dollars per year or one dollar per month is the minimum for joining the Chamber of Commerce. Investing in the community will prove instrumental in boosting the personal income, either from a farm or a business in town, maintains the Chamber of Commerce.

C of C Meeting Thursday Night

All interested parties are invited to attend the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Thursday night at 7:30 in the City Hall. The meeting is scheduled for March 27 and it was announced that various aspects concerning the progress of the town would be discussed.

Cecil Massey, whose resignation will become effective April 1, will be present and this will probably be his last official meeting with this Chamber of Commerce.

Candidates Draw Places on Ballot

The Board of Education for the Canyon Independent School District has set the date of Friday, March 28, for the candidates for Trustee to draw for their respective places on the ballot to be used in the election for Saturday, April 5th.

The drawing will be held at 1 o'clock in the afternoon in the office of the school tax collector on the second floor of the courthouse. This method of drawing for places is in compliance with the provisions of the revised election laws governing school elections in the State of Texas.

The last day for filing petitions for prospective School Board candidates is Tuesday, March 25. These petitions should be filed with the secretary of the board, Mrs. Ed Harrell, Box 262, Canyon, on or before this date.

Deputy Sheriff to Be Added in North Part of the County

At a meeting of the Commissioners Court Monday, it was voted to employ a second deputy sheriff for the staff of police officers in Randall county, who will work in South Amarillo.

Due to the large increase in population in that section of the county a petition was filed recently asking for the employment of a second deputy.

C-C Sponsors Short Merchandising Film

A movie, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, was shown in the City Hall Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. It was a short merchandising film, described as being 17 minutes in length, showing how fresh fruits and vegetables should be trimmed and displayed. The general merchandising principles depicted in the show were said to be applicable to any and all merchandising.

Brummett McClendon, merchandising manager for the Panhandle Fruit Company in Amarillo, operated the projector. Representatives from Cooper's, Bellah's and Taylor & Sons were present. Lynn Blewett from Bellah's and Redmond Hand from Cooper's helped get the projector, film and screen eased after the show was over. Taylor & Sons were represented by Dell French.

Boys Reaching 18th Birthday May See Ray McReynolds

Boys who reach the age of 18, required to register with the nearest draft board, may register in Canyon or in Wildorado with Ray McReynolds.

The four county draft board has headquarters at Hereford, but the plan is developed for registering with Mr. McReynolds locally in order that draftees may not be forced to make the trip to Hereford.

All boys who have reached their 18th birthday must register and carry their identification card. Failure to register may impose a fine of $10,000 or five years in prison, or both, in extreme cases.

Smith Elected to Serve Teachers

Emmitt Smith, associate professor of Education at West Texas State College, is the new executive secretary of school teachers in District IX. His duties in this capacity were officially begun March 17, St. Patrick's Day. He was elected during the recent convention of the teachers in Amarillo.

Dr. Roberts, head of the Education department at West Texas State, said officers in this organization were elected to serve one year. Membership of the organization is made up of all teachers in elementary schools, secondary schools and colleges in District IX.

Last Call to Buy '52 Car Plates

The sale of 1952 car license plates will come to an end on Tuesday, April 1st, if you intend driving your car on the highways of Texas.

Those who fail to buy their license plates before the closing period may find themselves arrested for violating the license plate limit, and be assessed a fine and penalty for their negligence.

Those who have not bought their license plate for the year should do so at once.

There has been quite a rush for the sale of license plates at the office of Bill Mosey, collector, this week. However, several hundred car owners have so far failed to buy their plates and must do so before the closing period on April 1st.

It is reported that car owners have been slow throughout the state in looking after this very essential job of providing their cars with the necessary plates.

Before you go to the tax collector's office, make sure that you have two documents:

The title to your car, and
The receipt for your 1951 license plates.

The collector cannot take the time to look up these documents, as he has in the past. The legislature passed a law in the last session which prohibits him from spending so much time looking up the title to cars, which every owner should keep handy among his papers.

There will probably be long lines of customers throughout the State waiting their turn to buy license plates at the last minute. The wise car owners will see to it that they buy these plates early and avoid long waits.

Cold Wave Hit 13 Degrees on Saturday Night

The temperature dropped to 13 degrees above zero Saturday night. There has been a gradual rise in temperature during the past few days following this low temperature brought on by the cold wave.

While the Panhandle had dust and cold, the northern part of the nation was digging out of snow banks, 15 to 24 inches deep. Tornadoes swept the Mississippi Valley states, taking the lives of more than 200 persons and millions of dollars in damage.

Asks Assistance in Detection Gathering Storm Clouds Here

G. W. Webb, who has been appointed as storm detector, asks the assistance of Randall County persons.

Those who see usual storm clouds gathering are requested to notify Mr. Webb at once, giving the location and direction in which the storm seems to be traveling.

Mr. Webb is at the Sheriff's Office during the day, phone 218; or may be reached at his home, phone 669-W at night.

The system of storm detection was recently set up by the U. S. Weather Bureau at Amarillo. Mr. Webb was selected to watch the clouds and report unusual formation of clouds which might lead to another tornado.

The show was sponsored by the All Saints Episcopal Guild. Johnson's Men's Wear showed tiny top and men's sport clothes; luggage was shown by Cheatham's Clothiers.

H. R.'s Greenhouse and Stevens Floral supplied floral arrangements for the style show. Styles which were shown were those of Easter and early summer.

CANTRELLS RETURN HOME

Sheriff and Mrs. M. E. Cantrell returned Sunday from a week spent on a business trip to South Texas.

They had attended the birthday celebration of Sheriff Cantrell's father in Wichita Falls the previous week; visited with Mrs. Cantrell's parents at Bryan; and attended the National Police Academy get together meeting in Houston, which was put on by the FBI for police officers who had attended the school in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Carl Hair and Mrs. Burney Slack were dinner guests in the W. T. Wilcher home in Plainview Friday evening and then attended the dedication of the new high school building in Plainview.

Voters May Help In Selection of Chief Candidate

Most people have the idea that they can do nothing about who is nominated as a presidential candidate but this is not altogether true. The nomination of this candidate is made on the basis of popularity of various figures selected by the large number of party conventions all over the U. S. All qualified voters should attend these conventions.

The amount of pressure these small delegations can place upon the state and national conventions is of a great factor in the selection of a candidate. If there is little or no pressure from these smaller delegations, the larger conventions take no notice of them and the candidate is selected without any consideration going to the community.

On the other hand, if the precinct convention has a good percentage of voters present and show that they are determined to have a voice in the nomination, their desires cannot be ignored.

Republicans and Democrats are urged to attend their respective precinct conventions. People who are not associated with either party are known as independents and can attend either convention they desire.

Press and radio facilities have been instrumental in telling the public the many responsibilities that go with a democracy. Time after time it has been pointed out that if we are to continue ruling ourselves, each voter should study the candidates and vote intelligently.

Precinct conventions in Texas are scheduled to be held Saturday, May 3, at voting places or other conveniently located spots.

WT A Cappella Choir Completes Area Wide Tour

Tomorrow afternoon ends the four day tour of the West Texas State College A Cappella Choir. The 45 members, under the direction of Houston Bright, associate head of the music department at the college, left Canyon Monday morning. Ten Panhandle towns were scheduled to be visited before the tour ended.

Three soloists were featured on the tour. Juanna Jo Broadway and Troy Thurman were featured as voice soloists while Ruth Soll was featured as the piano soloist.

The Varsity Male Quartet added entertainment for the audience. The Panhandle towns on the schedule of the choir are Phillips, Perryton, Dumas, Pampa, Borger, Canadian, Shamrock, Wellington, and Childress.

Camporee Planned To Help Boy Scouts

Boy Scout Troop 66 will meet this week end for a camporee in preparation for the big field day April 18, 19 and 20. Stuart Condon made the announcement early this week. He said that the camporee is a sort of dress rehearsal for the big field day which is made up of all the boy scouts of the Llano Estacado District.

The big field day will give all the scouts an opportunity to compete with each other in all the scout skills.

The camporee is to be held at Camp Don Harrington and the scouts of Troop 66 will leave Canyon about 9 o'clock Saturday morning. They will gather at the First Christian Church and it was explained that the boys will have an opportunity to attend church Sunday.

Stuart Condon explained that when scouts are away from home over a week end or on Sunday, arrangements are always made for regular church services to be given the boys.

Troop 66 is due back from the camporee about 6 o'clock in the afternoon Sunday. Scout master, Stuart Condon, hopes to whet up the skills of the boys in order to give them a better chance when they face the stiffer competition during the field day event April 18, 19 and 20.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

To Whom Shall We Be Loyal in Vote?

Is the Democratic party over and above the welfare of America?

Should the Democratic party be able to put a brass collar around the neck of all members and require them to vote the ticket, regardless?

Should you, as a Democrat, be forced to submit your ideas of clean government to the whims of some group of politicians who have their own necks at stake rather than the interest of the nation at stake?

Is the will of Harry S. Truman; his ideas and his thoughts about politics supreme above that of every other Democrat in the nation?

Should all Democrats swallow whole all of the corruption which has been centered around the administration of President Truman?

Do "Loyal Democrats" believe, like the President, that presidential primaries are mere "eye wash" and that the old line politicians will name the candidates for the party's leaders; and should all such candidates be accepted without question merely because the President says that they should be accepted?

Will the "Loyal Democrats" go to the polls in November and vote for the continuation of corruption in the government, simply because Truman is either the candidate or will be able to name the candidate for the Democratic party?

We see that J. Blake Timmons is the mouthpiece of the "Loyal Democrats" in the 18th Congressional District. We fear that he will have a tough time holding in line all of the Democrats who will vote as they please come this November, regardless of the medicine that he and his henchmen are trying to pour down the throats of the Democrats of Texas.

While this bunch of Democrats are professing to be for someone else, rather than the President, deep down in their souls every one of them want to see Truman re-elected. If they have their way about it, the President will win the nomination, and will be the Democratic candidate for President in November.

Here is one Democrat who says right here and now that we will not support Harry S. Truman for re-election in 1952, regardless of who may be running against him. We are opposed to the tax collectors' stealing the hard earned money which we have been sending to Washington.

We are opposed to the so-called civil rights program of the President; we are opposed to graft and greed; and increased expenses which Harry

S. Truman is piling on our backs; we can see no sense to the theory of killing thousands of men in a delaying war action.

If you want to see this condition increase, rather than improve, just swallow the dope which the so-called "Loyal Democrats" are putting out. Join up with the Democratic office holders who are now pouring out billions of dollars in extravagance. If Truman is re-elected, the situation will be much worse during the coming four years. He will then feel that he has a mandate to continue throwing money to the four winds, rather than trying to conserve the resources of the nation.

Personally we place the future welfare of this nation far above the welfare of politically minded persons like Truman, Timmons, and the other bureaucrats who are afraid of their shadows.

Shivers Has No Fear Of "Loyal Democrats"

The so-called "Loyal Democrats" of Texas are all hot and bothered about the activities of Governor Shivers in demanding that the Texas delegation go to the National Democratic convention uninstruted. They have promised Shivers a lot of rough treatment because of this stand on the part of the Governor.

So far as the Governor is concerned, he is absolutely right.

Why should the handful of delegates to the precinct and county conventions tie the hands of the delegates to the National Convention to vote for the hand picked candidate for President, when the average Democrat is opposed to the man whom this group will select?

This man will be Harry S. Truman, if he wants the nomination; or will be a friend of the President who will drive on down the same political road as the President!

The time has come for independence of political thought. Governor Shivers is performing a notable service in demanding this freedom.

Eisenhower Getting Mandate from People

If there was ever a potential candidate for the Presidency who can claim a mandate from the people it is General Eisenhower. He swept New Hampshire against the hard work of Senator Taft; he almost swept Minnesota in the face of opposition from Harold Stassen who was the only candidate with his name printed on the ballots.

The demonstration for Eisenhower throughout the South has been genuine. He is looked upon as a candidate who is not held down by political pressure from the old line political leaders. If he is the GOP nominee and is elected he will go into office free handed, and without political pressure from any group, except good Americans who are opposed to the rule or ruin program of the President.

We believe that General Eisenhower has been correctly advised by his friends that he must come back to America and make at least four major speeches before the Republican convention.

The people are sick and tired of the domination of Taft, Truman, and those little hirelings who profess to know what is best for the people.

We are convinced now that the people will speak their own minds without being forced to by a bunch of hirelings from Washington or from Austin.

"Mr. President" Is Creating Excitement

Yes, we have the new book on sale.

"Mr. President" is the title of the book, which many political observers believe is the work of Harry S. Truman.

One group of observers says that the book was written as a campaign document of the President for re-election.

Another group says the book was edited by Truman in order to place him in the best light with the voters, but that it was his swan song.

You may take your pick of the opinions, after reading the book.

The fact that staunch Republican papers were the first to bid for the publication rights is a pretty strong indication that the book will be pretty popular during the coming years, regardless of who edited it, or why it was written.

If You Believe in Canyon, Support C-C

There is a decided program for the Chamber of Commerce in Canyon during the future years. However, the program cannot be carried to a successful conclusion without the support of all citizens.

We have been talking C. of C. in Canyon for so long that some of the folks may have become a little weary of hearing us tell of the needs of the Chamber. All right, then join up; put up your money; go to work for the future development of Canyon, and we shall quit trying to sell you on the needs of a Chamber, and change the record to one of boosting for the accomplishments of the organization.

What we mean is just this: We cannot build a substantial community without YOUR HELP; without YOUR DOLLARS; without YOUR ENTHUSIASM.

The Chamber has just one aim: Build Randall County.

Why hold back and let your support of such an effort?

"Birds of a Feather Flock Together"

We talked to an ardent supporter of President Truman the other day. His position is that the President is not responsible for all of the corruption which has been uncovered in Washington and throughout the nation.

True enough. Truman is no more responsible for the prevailing corruption than Hoover was responsible for the depression. Yet he must shoulder the blame for all that goes on in his administration.

We grant that Truman is an honest man at heart, but he grew up in Kansas City politics, the most noted of the crooks in the nation, and therefore Truman either had to indulge in corruption or shut his eyes to corruption. We are inclined to believe that he chose the latter course.

His election, with his background, invited the crooks to swarm around the little man from Missouri, who was easily swayed by their suave words and the promise of big appropriations, if he would play their way.

As a result of this situation, Truman has secured for key positions the corruption crowd of America. Therefore, he is responsible for the action of the bunch whom he has selected to run the government.

You cannot figure it out any other way.

"Birds of a feather flock together."

Now that football and basketball scandals have about died down we can look forward to a normal baseball season — we hope.

Some editors know so much about the military situation they should be wearing five stars — on the battlefield, and battle stars.

Senator Johnson Is Uncovering Waste

Senator Lyndon Johnson of Texas is making quite a name for himself in locating waste of public funds.

Billions of dollars have been appropriated for the armed forces, yet much of this money is being wasted by extravagant buying and in building.

The position is taken that America is NOT AT WAR and therefore progress in the development of our war machine should be slow and efficient.

Yet we are rushing around like a bunch of chickens with their heads cut off, throwing money to the right and to the left.

Senator Johnson takes a look at what has happened to England, and warns us that this can happen here.

Spending into bankruptcy will solve no problems, but will bring on more headaches.

After the excitement of 16 presidential primaries, the national conventions will probably choose candidates who did not win most of the state primaries.

Some people are now beginning to wonder if they didn't miss a chance for a lot of free publicity by failing to announce for the presidency.

One of the miracles of this civilization is how the young people manage to survive the advice of the preceding generation.

It's about time for that spring change, which means different things to different people.

The trouble with most social movements is that they call for work from the same people.

This is the time of year to buy the seed and plants for that garden you plan each year.

The quickest way to make a friend is to start out with a good honest disagreement.

OVER THE ROAD or OVER THE ROUGH -you can't beat a GMC!

KNOW why, more and more, GMC's are becoming first choice of so many cost-watching truck operators in every type of hauling?

One of the big reasons, they will tell you, is they can always get a GMC that's exactly "engined" for their particular kind of work.

There is no need for a GMC owner to strain away with an underpowered truck—or lose profit to a gas eater unsuited to its job.

That's because GMC builds the widest range of truck engines in the industry—GMC famed valve-in-head gasoline engines from 100 to 200 H.P.—GMC exclusive 2-cycle Diesels from 110 to 225 H.P.

And it's the kind of power you don't have to pamper!

Each GMC engine is specially lubricated against wear, specially ventilated against acid-forming fumes even when idling—specially designed for truck duty!

Why not let us recommend the GMC truck, tractor or six-wheeler perfectly powered for your job? It will be a real truck all the way—exactly the right combination of engine, axle, transmission and frame blended by the world's largest exclusive manufacturer of commercial vehicles!

Canyon High School Choir Entertained Lions Wednesday

Wednesday was a great day for the Canyon Lions as well as for the Canyon High School Choir. The choir sang for the Lions and it was also the first day that the students who make up the choir had an opportunity to wear their new purple and white robes.

Under the direction of Ada V. Clark, the boys of the choir, sang "All Praise to Thee" and a medley of barber shop songs. After the boys were finished the Cordettes came up to sing two selections. These were, "When You're Smiling," and "Dinah."

Then the girls' chorus took their place to sing "God So Loved the World." And a mixed chorus gave three selections. These were "Madam Jeanette," "Mr. Banjo," and "Cock Robin."

The Lions also held an auction sale, the funds to be placed in the convention fund box, in which neck

Sponsored jointly by the WT Ex-Student Association and the Department of Art, the first West Texas State College Student and Alumni Art Exhibit opened Saturday, March 22 in the Panhandle-Plains Museum. Over 100 entries in a variety of media will be on exhibit until April 26.

Formal opening of the exhibit began at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon with a coffee reception in the museum. Isabel Robinson, head of the art department, A. G. Kieselbach, art instructor, and Milton Morris, head of the Ex-Student Association, addressed the group attending the opening.

The group discussed the possibility of an ex-art student association and an annual art exhibit.

At least 780 persons attended the art exhibit Sunday. Ex-students were welcomed back by Isabel Robinson. Approximately 40 ex-students attended.

Purpose of the exhibit is to bring about a union of people interested in art. Ex-students and students may renew acquaintances and meet and discourse with others who are skilled with their field.

Entries in the oil painting and watercolor division have been especially numerous. Sixty-six entries have been received in these media.

Other media represented are pen and ink, casein, plaster, salt, wood, ceramic, textile, silk screen, weaving, block print, metalwork, enamel, and bronze.

Geographical representation find entries from areas as distant as New York and Pennsylvania, as well as those from the immediate area.

A. G. Kieselbach, co-chairman of the exhibit committee, is very pleased with the response to the exhibit. He stated that this response indicated a strong art interest in this area, particularly among students and ex-students of West Texas State.

Joseph Stalin has pulled the rug out from under his European fellow travelers by proposing that a unified Germany be allowed to rearm. Communists in France and Poland have for years denounced any revival of a German Army. Now they have to turn around and applaud the idea.

Famous Speaker Gives Series of Lectures at WTSC

Last week Dr. R. A. Millikan delivered a series of lectures at West Texas State College in connection with "Religion and Life Week." The 1923 Nobel prize winner explained that man now has the ability as well as the likelihood, in the atomic bomb, to destroy himself. He maintained that it was the influence of our religion that has spread our abundance abroad.

The constitution of the United States, he said, is a sort of challenge to every person living in the U. S. "What can I do to make a better world," was described as the challenge of the constitution. The speaker went on to explain that the life and teachings of Jesus was the essence of Christian religion. As greater advancements are made by science, the narrower the chasm becomes between science and religion, Millikan pointed out.

Millikan explained that greater opportunities exist in a democracy than under dictators or totalitarian governments. Swinging verbally back to religion and science, the speaker explained the evolution of religion which drew it nearer to science. He said the evolution of religion started when God spoke to Abraham and Abraham decided to sacrifice an animal instead of the human being, his son, whom he was about to sacrifice. Today the evolution has changed still more and Christians sacrifice wealth in the form of tithes and offerings instead of live offerings.

Two principal figures which the speaker referred to in religion and science were Jesus and Galileo. He said that religion would be with us as long as man reflects and aspires to better things.

Millikan explained the advancement of the United States during his own lifetime. During this time it rose to a world power and also lifted standards of both science and religion. He pointed out that in a democracy each person has a job to do or an assignment to complete. "If we fail in our assignment, a part of the job will be left undone."

We Conoco Mileage Merchants are now trained and ready to give your car exactly the same service that helped keep test engines new in the spectacular "50,000 Miles—No Wear" road test!

In that famous test, six brand-new cars were each driven 50,000 killing miles, to prove the wear-fighting ability of Conoco Super Motor Oil.

Thanks to Conoco's 3-point "50,000 Miles—No Wear" Service, those engines showed no wear of any consequence, in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts. Gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000!

Now you can get Conoco's great "50,000 Miles—No Wear" Service to help your engine last longer, perform better, use less gasoline and oil!

Here's My Famous "50,000 Miles—No Wear" Service!

1. I'll Drain Out Grit and Sludge While The Engine Is Hot! "Hot-oil" drains every 1,000 miles flush out dirt, acid and contamination before they can do harm, leave the working parts of the engine sparkling clean!
2. I'll Recondition All Air and Oil Filters! I clean filter elements, replace worn-out cartridges, and record the mileage. I check mileage every time hood is lifted, to make sure these important filters are protecting your engine against outside dust and grit.
3. I'll Fill the Crankcase With Conoco Super Motor Oil! Conoco Super is fortified with additives that curb the dangerous accumulation of dirt and contamination—protect metal surfaces from corrosive combustion acids—fight rust—and OIL-PLATE a film of lubricant right to metal surfaces.

Girls and Boys of Canyon Schools Are Presented in Chorus

Miss Ada V. Clark directed the high school choruses Tuesday at the luncheon of the Canyon Rotary Club.

High School Principal J. E. Miller was in charge of the program. Dr. J. A. Hill called attention to the fact that 38 years ago Tuesday the college building burned. The Superintendent of the Lockney schools reported to Dr. Hill recently that all of his pupils and faculty members gathered outside the school building and watched the smoke as it went straight up into the air. It was two days before the Lockney school man heard of the fire.

Five groups of students were presented by Miss Clark in the program: The Harmony Group; the Girls Sextet; the Girls Octet; Girls Chorus; and Girls and Boys Chorus. All of the numbers were greatly enjoyed by the large group.

Three visitors came from Oklahoma City; six from Amarillo; and two from Canyon.

Premier Stalin's absence from the Supreme Soviet Council — a meeting that he always has attended before — is being taken as a sign that either: (1) he's ill, or (2) he's giving his Politburo a chance to get accustomed to running things without his advice.

Miss Graham sang "Oh, Divine Redeemer" and was entered in the high school group. Miss Truax sang "Into the Night" and was entered in the under 15 group.

Home Nursing Class May Be Organized

Nearly every family has an illness or injury sometime; much of the worry and confusion that often results can be reduced if some member of the family has the knowledge and skill required to give simple home nursing care to the sick or injured.

This is an art as well as skill in giving nursing care, and the welfare of the patient is usually dependent upon the manner in which it is met. The Red Cross Home Nursing course prepares you to meet these emergencies.

A specially trained instructor will help you learn these skills in classes where you have a chance to discuss procedures, watch them being demonstrated, and by practicing them yourself.

The course, "Home Care of the Sick," can be completed in only a few hours—but the skills you learn will be a part of your life for many hours, days and years.

Self-help is a fundamental factor in civil defense. This means that everyone must be willing and able to help himself and his neighbors. The Red Cross Home Nursing course will enable you to be of great assistance if and when a disaster should occur.

Classes will begin as soon as there is sufficient enrollment. If you are interested, please contact Mrs. Charles Peckenpaugh, chairman of the Red Cross Home Nursing Service, or Miss Lou Ella Patterson, Randall County Home Demonstration Agent.

Code of Ethics

Several members of Congress have from time to time introduced various suggested codes of ethics for public servants. Some of these concerned all public employees, some of them included various groups of employees, and others included everyone. In addition to these, most of the members of Congress have received a great many suggestions from constituents as to the necessity for a code of ethics and what these codes should contain.

I have tried to read all of these and analyze them, as they were prompted by the most sincere desire to help this country. Just last week I received one that I think perhaps is the best of all, and I think that you will thoroughly agree with me. It applies to everyone in all walks of life and has been known to all of us from early in our lives.

This code of ethics was mailed to me by the First Baptist Church at Shreveport, Louisiana, and was contained on one small sheet of paper. It is easily understood, and if followed, it would solve all of our domestic problems, all of our international problems, and all of the world's problems. I am going to pass it on to you, just as it came to me because I am sure that you will recognize it:

"A STANDARD OF ETHICS FOR ALL"

I Am Jehovah Thy God.

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.

Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy.

Honor thy Father and thy Mother.

Thou shalt not kill.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness.

Thou shalt not covet.

Man has made many futile attempts to enlarge upon and restate these Ten Commandments in different ways. If he had spent as much time trying to abide by them, most of our social and political problems would never have arisen. It is not too late to start.

Presidential Primaries

Presidential preferential primaries have perhaps received more publicity in the past few weeks than ever before in the history of this country. This is certainly a most encouraging note. The people have long wondered why they could not have a direct voice in the election of the President, or at least in the nomination of their party nominee for president. Much has been said about it in past years, but very little has been done.

Perhaps we are now on the road to such a preferential primary that will enable the people to voice their individual opinions as to who they want as the nominee of their party. It is something that should have been started long ago. I have had many heated arguments on the subject because I have always felt that a true democratic form of government demanded an expression from each individual subject to such government. Such preferential primaries, together with proper revision of the electoral college procedure, would actually give the individual voter a true voice in naming the persons to serve as President and Vice-President of this great country.

Foreign Aid

I have received lots of mail against the proposed 7.9 billion dollar foreign aid expenditure. The proponents of this measure are going to have a hard time carrying it through Congress without some sizeable cuts.

I noticed that England had approved Churchill's budget for approximately 11 billion dollars. The English budget is about one-eighth of the budget proposal for this country. In fact, the English budget is just a little more than the foreign aid part of the proposed United States budget. This just doesn't make sense.

Un-American Activities in Film and Theatrical Fields

The House Un-American Activities Committee had another witness who denies being a communist but refuses to tell whether he ever was one or not. His name is Hyman S. Kraft, a one-time Hollywood screen writer and one of the authors of the Broadway musical hit, "Top Banana." He says that he is not a communist and was not in 1950 or 1951, but refuses to answer as to any other time. This is the same pattern that has been followed by several others from the film and theatrical fields of New York and Hollywood. A house cleaning is needed in both places.

Interment was in the Silverton cemetery by the side of three children who had preceded him a number of years ago.

Sigmund Freud is known as the founder of psychoanalysis.

Individuals and nations join in the dream of "smooth sailing" for the days ahead. We are not disturbed by a little rough weather and some drifting from our course, if only tomorrow we may have the better weather for the craft on which we travel.

This is God's world in which we live and the soul who expects "smooth sailing" must learn the laws of the winds of God. We must know in which direction to chart our course and how to man the sails for the best use of the winds as they blow. As you start the day's sailing, stop for a brief moment or two to ask the Great Pilot of all sea-going ships, what is the course he recommends. Be sure you have read carefully the guide book for mariners; its called The Sermon on the Mount. It will tell you how to meet the winds and how to make them drive your ship toward the desired haven. You must know how to tack as you face the difficult head-on winds which will surely meet you somewhere on your journey. Examine well the cargo and the passengers which you have aboard. Be sure the compass is working exactly that you may not drift too far from the course. The most important part of sailing is in the preparation for sailing and in the good judgment used in finding the right companionship.

In the long ago a dozen men sailed a difficult sea and feared in the storm that their little craft would founder. But they had asked a Master Sailor to go with them; and when they waked him from his rest to face the storm, they were amazed to hear the command, "Peace, be still," and to see the raging waters calmed under his authority. Men who had been having a rough voyage because of the Companion they had chosen found the "smooth sailing" which they longed for. "Jesus, Saviour, pilot me over life's tempestuous sea."

Local DHIA Dairy Herds Are Tops in Milk Production

The DHIA news gives its Randall County members the top spot in milk production per cow. The bulletin says the report is a month late which results in the figures representing the February testing period.

Dairymen are reminded that it's time to start planning summer pastures. In the very near future the dairy days of springtime will be here. Local dairymen will enjoy the great satisfaction of visiting with each other during these sales. Dairymen believe one of the friendliest scenes is a barn and a bale of hay with two dairymen sitting on it talking about cattle. Canyon herds to win honors in this period were those of Neil Downing, L. S. Johnston, Joe Carver, V. K. McCaskill, A. B. Haynes, and Ed Bourn & Son.

Sister Elizabeth Kenny, Australian nurse: "My mother was a Protestant and my father was a Catholic. I love both faiths: I love all faiths."

L. Kathryn Dice, Professor of Remedial Reading, McCoy College: "Force yourself to read at a rate that feels slightly uncomfortable."

Thomas J. S. Waxter, Public Welfare official: "Everyone ages at a different rate. Therefore, retirement should be a gradual process."

Harry S. Truman: "Not a single dollar should be cut out of the proposed (foreign aid) program, less this nation be guilty of a false economy or too little and too late."

Just Between You, Me and . . . the Gatepost

More and more interest is being shown in the progress which will come with a larger Chamber of Commerce. One of the greatest inspirations of the year happened in this department Saturday morning. It's a heart tugging story that should light a fire under present members of the Chamber of Commerce and make those who aren't members join up right away.

The story, as told by Cecil Massey, goes something like this. An elderly woman came by the Chamber of Commerce offices and asked about joining. She explained that she would like to pay her dues periodically. The only thing she asked in return for doing all she could for the Chamber of Commerce was to be assured that the gutter in front of her house was cleaned from time to time. She explained that her only means of getting around was by walking and that rain left pools in the front of her house that were difficult to get around if the gutter was not cleaned so the water could drain off.

That's the story of a person who is literally leaning over backwards to help the town move progressively up the ladder. It's the story of a person who has nothing to gain by joining the Chamber of Commerce except the satisfaction of helping the society in which she lives, or perhaps to get the gutter in front of her house cleaned and that should be done whether she is a member of the Chamber of Commerce or not. She's helping a community to progress that has business men located within it who are not interested enough to join the Chamber of Commerce. If her wonderful example of unselfishness doesn't spur more people to action, nothing will.

Last week a special check was made to determine whether or not there was a boulevard stop sign on the east side of the highway at 5th Avenue. Sure enough there wasn't. Most people know to stop but that does not mean that the boulevard stop sign should not be there. For months past city officials have been trying to get more stop lights on the highway. The one light that is down there is more often ignored than heeded and this leads to the danger of wrecks.

Blinker lights have been promised but scarcity of materials is holding up their installation. Several near tragedies have been witnessed along the highway because motorists drive too fast. There's a 25 mile per hour speed limit along that stretch of road but it's seldom observed. Something should be done to slow down that traffic before there is a tragedy. Closing the barn door after the horse has escaped may be one policy but it's not the best.

Friday night West Texas State College students tripped the light fantastic at their annual personality dance. The personality king and queen were crowned. Pat Cantrell, one of the college's most popular girls, was crowned queen and Dave Plank was given the title of king.

The students are bearing up under the burden of classes and spring fever better than might be expected. Classes have lost very little of the old zip because of the leaden feeling warm weather usually brings. It may be that students are remaining highly active in order to help the time so vacation will hurry and arrive.

Some of the students have turned to poetry to pass the time. This bit of doggerel was noticed on one of the desks in the English building.

When I die, Bury me deep
Put this book at my feet.
Tell the teacher I did my best
And let the freshmen do the rest.

The book which the writer was referring to was his English book. Someone had come along, probably a freshman, and ruled out the word freshmen and pinned above it the word sophomores.

Now here comes something new for this column. For the time being it will sail under the banner of chirps of wisdom, the name is subject to change without notice however. It's a group of witty, at least half-witty, sayings designed to bring a chuckle. They go something like this. Bright eyes indicate curiosity. Black eyes too much. The man who falls in love with himself will have no rivals. Speak well of your enemies, you made them. A maxim for marriage, never tell a wife to do anything unless she has already decided to do it.

And here's a little yarn you might enjoy. It seems that they had been sitting in the swing in the moonlight alone for some time and nothing had happened. No word had broken the stillness for half-an-hour when she finally said, "Suppose you had money, what would you do?"

He thought a moment and answered, "I'd travel."
He felt her warm hand slide into his. When he looked up she had gone and in his hand was a dime.

Variety Show To Start Tour Mar. 31

Final road tour plans for the College Variety Show were completed this week and the show is rounded out with eleven student acts. March 31, April 1 and 2 are the dates set for the college troupe to tour eight area high schools.

The show will play three times daily except for April 2. Towns slated to receive the group on Monday, March 31, are Panhandle, 10 o'clock, Phillips, 2:30 o'clock and Canadian, 8 o'clock in the evening.

Tuesday the WTexans will travel to Shamrock for a 10 o'clock morning performance, Memphis at 2:30 in the afternoon and close out the day with an 8 o'clock finale in Childress.

Concluding the jaunt Wednesday they will play a 10:30 engagement at Floydada and will wind up the swing at Tulia at 3 o'clock.

A definite date for a campus showing has not been set.

Masters of Ceremonies for the production are Dan Stallings and Ray Wells.

Acts to be presented on the program are as follows: The Collegians; Dixieland Combo; Ernie Siegrist, accordion; Donna Erwin, female vocalist; Jerry Jones, male vocalist; Andrew Tzykewicz, piano; Pat Cantrell, reading; Richard Maxwell and Richard (Skip) Summers, dance; Jerry Williams, dance; Laverne Fowler, comedy; girls trio, Donna Erwin, Fae Marie Beck and Barbara McDougal.

Dr. William C. Menninger, member, National Mental Health Committee: "One out of every ten persons in the United States will need psychiatric care at some time during his life."

Work Begins to Induce Voters Go to Conventions

Voters of Texas are being urged by disinterested parties to attend the precinct conventions on May 3rd. This is the only time that voters will be given the opportunity to participate in the selection of their delegates to the State Conventions of the two political parties, which in turn will name delegates from Texas to the National Convention.

Following the precinct convention, the county convention will be held on May 6. In view of the fact that Canyon and South Amarillo will control the county convention many of the other voting boxes will not hold precinct conventions.

The only fight in Texas will be over the question of sending an instructed, or an uninstructed delegation from Randall county. The Truman forces are demanding an instructed delegation, while the anti-Truman citizens, headed by Governor Allan Shivers, favor sending an uninstructed delegation, which would be free to vote for the

Vocal Contests On Tap This Week

Vocal groups from 46 Panhandle and Plains towns will participate in the annual interscholastic vocal contest on Friday and Saturday, March 28 and 29, according to William O. Latson, contest director.

Innumerable solos and ensembles will also try for contest honors.

Latson stated that this year's contest will be the largest ever held on the campus of West Texas.

Judges for this year's contest will be Warren Imig of Colorado University, Herald Stark of Iowa University, Chester Francis of Oklahoma University, James Richard of East Texas State College, Don Morton of John Tarleton College and Milton Bradley of Panhandle A. and M.

Choir groups from the various schools will present contest numbers in the Administration building auditorium.

Solos and ensembles will be presented in the Education Building auditorium and Cousins hall lounge.

No admission will be charged for any part of the contest. Doors will be closed during performances, however, and the audience is requested by contest authorities to neither enter nor leave while a group or soloist is singing.

LOST CAUSE

After a convivial evening with friends, he was making his weaving way home when he ran into a tree. Cautiously he backed off and tried again. Again he collided.

Tightening his jaw, he made another attempt; then another. It was no use. Each time his wobbling feet brought him back up against that tree. Finally he sank to the base of the tree, a dejected huddle, muttering: "Losht, losht, in an impenetrable foresht!"

Power Failure Darkens Three Plains Towns

Neblett Hospital brought out emergency lighting equipment Wednesday night when electric power failed and the town floundered in darkness. The sudden darkness which swooped down on three Plains towns was created by a failure in electrical current.

More than 20 minutes were required to get the service back into operation and three towns, Canyon, Hereford, and Clovis, N. M., were affected by the failure. The cause of the disturbance was an airplane hitting a shield wire about a mile east of the hangers of Tradewind Airport.

The shield, as explained by Cliff Mlinar of the local Southwestern Public Service Company, acts much like an old fashioned lightning rod. It doesn't actually carry electricity but when the airplane struck it the wire fell across others which were carrying a load of 115,000 volts. The result was immediate darkness for three Plains towns.

No one was hurt in the airplane. Gene Poteet, an airman stationed at Amarillo Air Force Base, was piloting the light plane in which three other people were riding. After crashing into the shield wire Poteet brought the plane to a safe, smooth emergency landing.

Knowing the trouble was serious and not knowing exactly where it was, resulted in a crew of men being held for several minutes at the Public Service Company here. Mr. Mlinar said they used their radio system to learn where and what the trouble was and in a short time the crew was dismissed.

Mlinar said Canyon was in darkness 23 minutes because of the current failure. As soon as the company knew the extent of the trouble and where it was located, the solution was simple. A switch was thrown to start the electric service from another line.

Financial Set Up Of Gas Company Is Changed Recently

At recent meetings of the boards of directors of Southwestern Development Company and its subsidiaries, most principal officers of the several companies were re-elected for another year, it has been announced by Thos. F. Cartwright of Amarillo.

Mr. Cartwright is president of Amarillo Oil Company, Dalhart Gas Company and Clayton Gas Company. H. R. Budke is president of Amarillo Gas Company, C. I. Wall of Lubbock is president of West Texas Gas Company, and A. F. Cox of Amarillo is president of Red River Gas Company. P. C. Spencer of New York is president of the parent company.

For many years, Southwestern Development Company has been owned 51% by Sinclair Oil Corporation and about 47% by The Mission Oil Company of Kansas City. In 1951, Southwestern, Mission and Sinclair submitted to the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, a plan of simplification and integration under the Public Utility Holding Company Act, and such plan was approved by the Commission last December 21.

As one of the steps in this simplification, The Mission Oil Company will liquidate by distributing its assets to its approximately 1500 stockholders, and will then dissolve. Mission's stockholders will receive, among other things, one share of Southwestern Development Company common stock for each share of Mission now held.

Thus, upon Mission's liquidation, Southwestern will have at least 1500 stockholders, some of whom reside in this area.

As another step in the simplification, Sinclair during 1952 will sell its Southwestern Common stock. It is probable that much more of this stock will then find its way into the hands of many individual investors in the territory served by Southwestern's operating subsidiaries.

At any rate, the ownership of Southwestern, in the foreseeable future, will become widely scattered among numerous investors. Southwestern will give consideration at a later date to the advisability of listing its stock on either the New York Curb or the New York Stock Exchange.

The stock is being traded in now over the counter through brokerage houses on a "when delivered" basis and is available to any interested investor. No public stock selling solicitation will be done by Southwestern, its subsidiaries, or Sinclair.

As a part of the overall plan, Southwestern Development Company has already divested itself of its former stock holdings in Canadian River Gas Company and Colorado Interstate Gas Company. These two companies were merged on December 28, 1951, the surviving company being Colorado Interstate Gas Co.

Southwestern retained full ownership of Amarillo Gas Company, Amarillo Oil Company, Clayton (New Mexico) Gas Company, Dalhart Gas Company, Red River Gas Company (a natural gas producing company with offices in Amarillo); and West Texas Gas Company, whose headquarters office is in Lubbock.

Southwestern, upon completion of the simplification process, will own no other interests, and its retained subsidiaries will constitute an integrated public utility system serving natural gas to more than 100,000 homes, businesses and industries in west and northwest Texas and northeastern New Mexico.

Each of the companies in the Southwestern Development Company group is a separate and distinct corporation and operates under the guidance of its own officers.

However, Amarillo Oil Company maintains a group of specialists trained and experienced in all phases of natural gas production, transmission and distribution, as well as in the problems of management, financing, engineering, auditing and personnel, which group correlates general policies for all the companies.

People who work with wildlife have their problems, too.

For example:

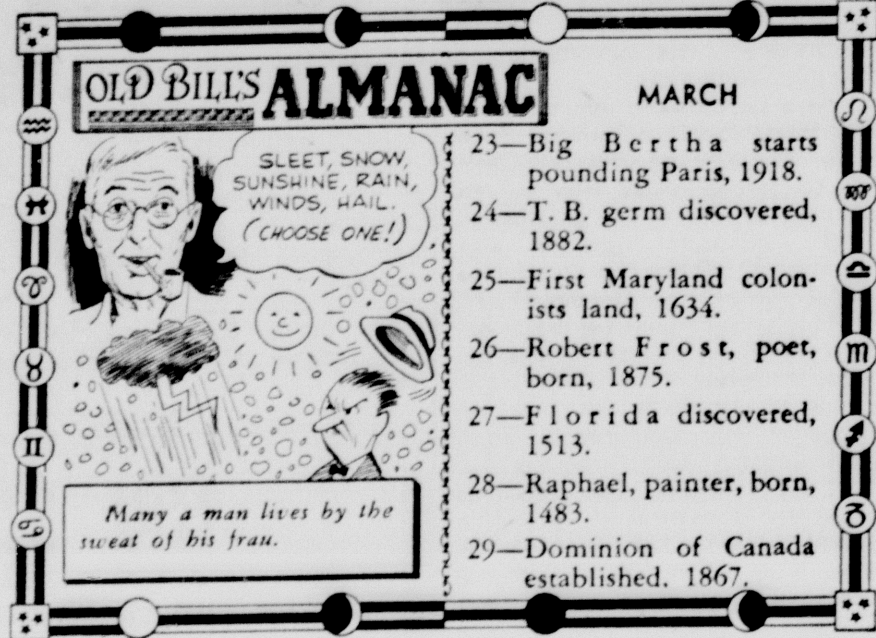

The scientists retained by the Texas Game & Fish Commission try to make life a little easier for animals and fish, which are under constantly increasing pressure from hunters and fishermen.

The biologists on the game side recently had a typical setback. They had helped clinch a modern day conservation conquest in the Crockett area where land owners joined to restore white-tailed deer.

The biologists pledged the game department to provide an initial consignment of 100 deer to be delivered during the winter. Ordinarily, this committee would be a routine service, because trapping deer for transfer to other areas is comparatively simple.

Deer for restocking in Texas mainly come from the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge, which has an abundance of the white tails since hunting is forbidden on this Gulf Coast haven.

In seven of the last fourteen years, more than 1,000 deer have been trapped for removal to restoration areas. The process is simple. Trained crews place the portable traps in the deer feeding grounds and bait them with cottonseed cake. This food ordinarily is relished by the animals.

The worry this time was caused by a winter so mild on the coast that natural food continued abundant throughout the off season.

So the whitetails, fat and sassy from nature's cupboard, ignored the tasty tidbits provided by the trappers. The result was definitely embarrassing. While the game department was committed to deliver 600 deer to different areas, only 330 were trapped. Since the Crockett project was scheduled to receive late shipments, it got only a fraction of the pledge number of deer.

That's a game side setback. Here is one from the fish side: Wildlife students pretty generally agree that deterioration of game stocks through shrinkage of natural habitat means that eventually the state's fishing resources will have to take a larger share of the sportsmen's load. More angling areas are being provided through artificial lakes.

Therefore, aquatic biologists have been pressing to meet the new challenge. So what happens this year under the heading of "Things that cannot be helped?" Two of the thirteen state hatcheries have been put out of commission by lack of water supplies caused by the drought. The Medina hatchery is out of action and so is the Cisco hatchery. This is the first time for the latter place.

Now, the scientists are trying to accentuate fish repopulation through a novel experimental project at the San Marcos hatchery. They are regulating the water temperature in one bass pond. Nature ordinarily handles this assignment. But in some recent years unseasonal spring cold spells have killed the spawn. Equally important under the temperature control experiment is a plan to hasten bass hatching so that young bass may be released in lakes and streams to feed on rough fish spawn and thus suppress the predacious species.

MRS. NEWTON CRAIN HONORS 1925 BRIDGE CLUB MARCH 19

Mrs. Newton Crain honored the 1925 Bridge Club on March 19. Lovely pot plants decorated the entertaining rooms.

A delicious plate lunch was served to Mesdames R. P. Jarrett, Jr., Boone McClure, Aubrey Crossland, Claude Moore, J. D. Barker, Iverson Leake, Glenn Dowlen, Milton Morris, Hosea Foster, A. K. Knott, J. Madison Daugherty and Miss Irene Angel.

Mark Twain once wisecracked that "Folks talk a lot about the weather, but they don't seem to do much about it."

He should see us now.

Instead of waiting for rain, we pump it out of the ground and get on with our planting. Or else we pay a fellow so much an acre to bring it, then sit back. He goes up in a plane and seeds the clouds to make them give.

Extreme heat? It's nothing. We have refrigerated our houses and store buildings so that anyone who likes his weather natural has to get out in the open to get a frank treatment. We can't even count on a long hot trip in the summer, what with air-conditioning units attached to car motors.

Severe cold? We've got that under control, too. At home, there is the electric blanket. If we want to go places, we step into a glass-enclosed automobile and glide over paved roads without so much as a frostbitten finger.

Although we haven't yet learned how to stop earthquakes and tornadoes, we can foretell just about when and where they're going to hit. In fact, man has done so darn much about the weather in the last few years that he's got it at sixes and sevens: Bright sunny days in December. Show on the first day of spring. Duststorms any time all over. We've got the weather so crossed up that it's not even a good topic of conversation any more.

If Mark Twain were with us now, he'd probably sum up the subject more like this: "Do anything you want to about the weather; just don't talk about it."

Connally Is Strong For Japanese Treaty

WASHINGTON: Senator Tom Connally of Texas, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, this week hailed ratification of the Japanese Peace Treaty and the related Pacific security pacts as "a long step forward toward lasting peace in the Pacific area."

Senator Connally last week steered the peace treaty to Senate approval by a vote of 66 to 10 after defeating all reservations proposed by opponents of the treaty. The security treaty with Japan was ratified by a vote of 58 to 9, also after all reservations had been beaten down. The treaty with the Philippines and the treaty with Australia and New Zealand were approved by voice votes.

The New York Times said that the vote of six to one, far more than the required minimum of a two-thirds majority, was "a victory for the first example of Senate bipartisanship on Asian policy in two years, for the Democratic foreign policy leader, Senator Tom Connally of Texas, and, generally, for those internationalist Senate Republicans who are supporting or leaning toward the candidacy of General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower for the Republican presidential nomination."

The Washington Post called the vote for ratification "proof that common sense does not necessarily die in a presidential election year" and "a rebuke to the defeatists at home and abroad who think that nothing of enduring value, least of all in the field of foreign affairs, can be accomplished on Capitol Hill in 1952."

Mrs. Mary Burtz visited for the past two weeks in Lubbock and Ropesville visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fewell and Mr. and Mrs. Buren Fewell. While in Lubbock she attended the church wedding of her granddaughter, LaVonne, to Don Sharp. LaVonne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fewell.

Mrs. G. B. Bourland had as her guest Friday night an old schoolmate, Mrs. Lee Gilpin Favor, whom she had not seen since they attended school together in 1900.

District President Speaks to Sue Hite

The Sue Hite Club met in the lounge of Cousins Hall for the annual Federation Day Tea on Monday, March 24.

Mrs. W. S. Haggard, president, called the meeting to order and turned the meeting over to Mrs. William A. Moore, program chairman, who introduced Mrs. O. M. Gentry, Seventh District President of Federated Clubs, of Spur.

Mrs. Gentry gave a most interesting discussion of the phases of the life of a federated club woman, stressing the physical, spiritual and intellectual attitudes desirable. She concluded by urging all club women to vote this year in order to make their voices heard in politics.

Mrs. Lee Foster gave special musical selections.

Special guests for the afternoon were members of the Woman's Book Club. Members from that club who attended were Mesdames A. W. Sternberg, Clyde McElroy, C. M. Dowlen, A. B. Holt, A. A. Clark, Fred Standley, R. A. Neblett, C. R. Burrow, J. W. Kleinschmidt, S. H. Condron, Clyde Warwick, Ben Loudder, James P. Cornette, Irvin SoRelle, Lee Johnson, J. S. Humphrey, Charles Harter, Lee Foster, J. A. Hill and Misses Darthula Walker and Edna Graham.

Following the program guests were served individual cakes and punch from an attractively appointed tea table. Mrs. J. A. Hill served the cakes and Mrs. J. S. Humphrey presided at the punch bowl. They were assisted by members of the hospitality committee, Mrs. Virgil Henson, Mrs. Rex Reeves, Mrs. C. N. Nester, Mrs. Sidney Burgess, Mrs. Robert Busted and Mrs. John Jennings.

Members of the Sue Hite Club present were Mesdames Earl Craig, Burney Slack, E. R. Cleavinger, Clay Cooper, W. E. Miller, William A. Moore, D. M. Foster, Dennis Lyle, Strauss Atkinson, Gene McGlasson, Jr., Crews Henry, Jno. E. Bowden.

MODERN LIVING IS ELECTRIC LIVING!

Family feasts were quite a chore in the old days. Not too much fun for the womenfolk for they were in the kitchen for days before the feast and all day on the day of the occasion. The heat of old-fashioned cooking methods, and its slowness, made such feasts just plain hard work. But that's all changed now — thanks to modern electric cooking. Family coming for dinner? Bring out your electric roaster. Added to the oven and surface unit capacity of your electric range, the roaster makes feast preparation a snap. And it doesn't take hours of watching or heat up the kitchen either. Like your electric range, it's the coolest cooking method known — most efficient, too.

'Courting' in School

Not long ago an article appeared in the library newspaper stating that "courting" was going on in the library book stalls. Other reports to the same effect have also been going around the school.

There's a time and a place for everything, and "courting" just doesn't belong in an institution of learning. We students come to school to learn to be better citizens, and to grow to be educated men and women who will someday take our place in the world of business and everyday life.

"Courting" should be left out of schools for two very important reasons: (1) It gives our school a bad name; and (2) It causes students to lose their respect for those students who are doing such.

We come to this school to learn subjects like math, history, English, and many other such courses. If we keep our studies up like they should be, there shouldn't be any time left over for "courting" in the halls.

Let's all try to keep up our school's good name by eliminating this practice.

Dating Data

If your parents treat you like a two-year-old, probably it's because you act like a two-year-old sometimes. Look at it this way. How often do you ask your mother to do things for you that you could do for yourself, such as picking out your clothes, or making all the sandwiches for the party you are giving?

These little things are important because the less you ask your mother to do for you, the less she will tell you what to do. Growing up should mean that you are learning the first real step toward becoming an adult, accepting responsibility. Do the jobs you have to do every day without being reminded.

When you disagree with your parents, explain to them unemotionally and quietly why you disagree and consider their opinions with as much thought as you expect them to give your opinions. As soon as you prove to your parents that you really are growing up, they will start treating you that way.

Well, here's Cal again this week, in the midst of cold wind and dust, to relate to you the activities of a number of our groups here at this establishment for knowledge. If Cal doesn't mention your group, it isn't because he hasn't wanted to, but he just can't print everything every time.

Most of the high school kids have a nice, warm, clean bed to sleep in at night! However, when two senior boys decide to sleep in sleeping bags and wet gunny sacks, on the stage, this world's activities must be evolving backwards! It was reported that they had hot water, clothes lines, a refrigerator, (they hung their milk out the window!), and ate WHEATIES for breakfast. I suppose this brought them out of their lethargy!

Cal really enjoyed the Senior Play and extends his most sincere congratulations to the cast members, sponsors, and directors, in appreciation for a good job well done. Congratulations also go to the stage managers, ticket sales, and publicity managers.

Administrators, faculty members, fellow students, and Ole' Cal sincerely welcome Norris Samuelson back to school! Norris has suffered a long and serious illness, but is here taking his place among us in CHS.

Mamarracho! Mamarracho! No, kids, we're not yelling at you! Mamarracho is the name Cal has finally chosen for his new horse! And, if you know what the arrangement of grotesque letters spell, you are a fine figure at Spanish. (Incidentally, the word's meaning is in this paragraph!)

"Importance of Public Schools" Wins Second Place in School Week Contest

During this time proclaimed as Texas Public School Week, we are especially encouraged to think about the importance of public schools. You see, it does concern each one of us individually, for we have been given the opportunity to attend 12 years of public school in order that we might be capably prepared to solve the many problems that will confront us very soon.

America has a strong belief that all children should be educated, not just a select number. For one to be wealthy, or of a certain race, religion, or color are not some of the requirements that have to be met before one can enter an institution of learning. No, but rather that he might be interested enough in the destiny of his country to obtain an education in order for his nation to progress. Because of this desire many sacrifices have made possible this system of public schools of learning for all. For we believe America is a democracy of all the people.

In our public schools, courses are given to help us understand the problems that will have to be solved by the students of today as the leaders of tomorrow. We are taught to take care of and not abuse the privileges provided for us by our government. We are given the contrast between a democratic and a communistic country. Having been shown the difference, we come to realize how lucky we are. You and I are given a lot of privileges in our nation that students in other countries never dreamed of having. We know that we can advance as far in our education as we want, that we can select our life vocation, be what we desire, run our government as the majority of the people want it to be directed, and accomplish many other desires because we have had the opportunity in our public schools to be a free, intelligent people capable of handling these problems.

Well-trained instructors teach us to cope with the varied problems that may arise. They teach us to think and depend upon our own selves rather than on others. A following quotation expresses this well: "She left ajar the door of a great literary store-house, and so conducted her class that I went forth able to open the door still farther and enter boldly into reading of my own choice. Now her opportunity is mine and I trust I may not fail."

Our world was comparatively dark before we had any education at all. But a brand new illumined world shone forth to us with each portion of knowledge we gained. With new eyes of learning we are able to see numerous things in the world about us to which we had before been blind. We live in and can, in a sense control the size of world we want and with the education given us by public schools we are able to know what we want and set forth to accomplish it.

Education helps to make right thinking, right living men and women of ourselves. It instills the spirit of good citizenship in each of us with a strong loyalty to our government. The United States belongs to me and my classmates.

The Canyon High School Chorus will enter in the annual Regional Music Competition - Festival at West Texas State College, March 28. Contest numbers for the mixed chorus are "Madame Jeannette" by Murray, "God So Loved the World" by Stainer, and "Mister Banjo," a creole song. The girls chorus will sing "Song of the Angels" by Rubinstein, "O Come, O Come Emmanuel" arranged by Runkel, and "I Have Lots of Gold," a Russian folk song.

Solos are to be sung by Sue Daniels and Bettie Jean Graham. Sue is going to sing "The Little Damozel," by Novella, and Bettie will sing "Into the Night" by Edwards. A girls ensemble group will sing "The Lass with the Delicate Air."

To be eligible to enter the contest all students must be passing in at least three subjects. The size of the school determines the class of the school. Canyon is in Class A.

There are 57 members in the chorus. They are: sopranos, Ann Barnhill, Mary Alice Bauer, Barbara Beck, Doris Bourn, Marcia Bynum, Sue Daniels, Bettie Jean Graham, Mary Sue Hicks, Lila Maye Hunter, Arlene Johnson, Laura Kinney, Shirley Marshall, Helen Parker, Shirley Peppard, Carol Rose, and Norma Dean Thurmon.

Altos are: Marie Brown, Florence Coffee, Jo Ann Dodson, Bettie Glanton, Shirley Glenn, Wanette Green, Lucy Hollabaugh, Ann Holt, Sue Ann Kinney, Agnes Measamer, Dorothy Neblett, Janice Waldrop, and Shirley White.

Second sopranos are: Nancy Bolton, Ruby Brown, Rita Jo Crow, Mary Frances Dodson, Jean Maynard, Tanya Hanks, Clydeen Mitchell, Mary Owens, Wilda Faye Pitt, Carleeta Phelps, Lucille Simon, Catherine Wiegard, and June Wortham.

Basses and tenors are: Willie Mac Weaver, David Miller, Dick Dawdy, Jerry Downing, Ray Green, James Joyner, Donald McDonald, Steve McKee, John Miller, Olan Pope, Richard Sanders, Bobbie Vandergriff, and A. C. Wimberly.

Former Plainview Superintendent Is Killed in Accident

A traffic accident in El Paso took the life of O. J. Laas Wednesday afternoon. For more than a decade Mr. Laas was superintendent of Plainview Public Schools. He had been a leader in advocating the expansion of the school system.

His efforts in this field ultimately led to the construction of a $1,250,000 Plainview High School building. The dedication of this building took place two days after the tragic death of Mr. Laas.

The death of Mr. Laas occurred half-an-hour after his car collided with a truck at an intersection in El Paso. At the time of the crash Mr. Laas was alone in his car. The impact of the collision threw him from the automobile.

The 63 year old educator was a representative of a school supply company at the time of his death. In the capacity of church work Laas was active both as a Sunday School teacher and as an elder in the Plainview First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Laas will be remembered in Canyon as the former Miss Fanny Cash, daughter of Mrs. Harvey Cash of this city.

ORDER FILLED

The old lady went to a tombstone cutter's office to order a stone for her husband's grave. After explaining that all she wanted was a small one with no frills, she told him to put the words "To My Husband" in a suitable place.

A few days later she went to see the stone and she saw: "To my husband. In a suitable place."

KNOW THE FACTS

A shipwrecked sailor, who had spent five years on a desert island, was overjoyed one day to see a ship drop anchor in the bay. A small boat came ashore and an officer handed the sailor a bundle of newspapers.

"The captain suggests," he said, "that you read what's going on in the world today, and then let us know if you want to be rescued."

NOT LIKE THE FLOOD

An American died and went to Heaven, and promptly started to boast about his native land. "Do you know," he told a group of spirits, "that at Niagara Falls eight billion cubic feet of water flow over the cliffs every second!"

"Poof!" said Noah, scornfully. "Dew-drops!"

When I was quite small (perhaps 5.) my father ran a restaurant in the small town of Doe Run, Mo. I observed that when a man bought a cigar, he thrust the end into a metal box and there was a clicking sound as the tip was cut off and then he would light that end.

After seeing the cigar clipper used dozens of times, I had a curiosity to find out if the machine would clip other things so I thrust in a finger. It would!

No doubt I let out a scream and my father came running. My finger was bleeding but only the skin had been clipped. I did not experiment further; my curiosity had been satisfied.

There was another bit of excitement in the restaurant one day. One customer used to romp with me and gave me little presents and I thought highly of him. One day, I saw him in the cafe and started to run to him. Then a thing happened which was most amazing to a little boy.

My father picked up a baseball bat and drove the customer from the place. I could not understand. The man was a friend, yet my father had forced him to leave—and my father could do no wrong. I used to wonder and wonder about it. It must have been two years later before I was old enough to understand the reason: the man had been drinking and he had an open knife in his hand and my father was afraid that he might injure me.

A man who was crossing the ocean owned a valuable diamond which he planned to have set in a ring when he reached London. The ship was approaching the harbor and he was standing at the rail playfully tossing the diamond into the air. The vessel gave a lurch and the jewel fell into the ocean.

Three weeks later he was about to leave London to return to the United States. He ordered fish for lunch and was eating it with great gusto when he bit down on something hard. He removed the object from his mouth and—what do you think he found? A fish bone—that's what he found!

There have been 48 stars in the American flag since July 4, 1912.

HAD GOOD REASON

The talkative lady was telling her husband about the bad manners of an acquaintance who had recently paid her a visit.

"If that woman yawned once while I was talking to her," she said, "she yawned 11 times."

"Perhaps she wasn't yawning, dear," the husband said, "maybe she wanted to say something."

Tribute to a neighbor

We'd like you to meet a neighbor on whom both of us depend.

He's the man who operates the service station in your neighborhood.

You depend on him to take care of your car, to supply you with products of high quality at reasonable prices. You expect, and get, from him more free service than from any other merchant with whom you do business: whatever you spend, he cheerfully cleans your windshield, checks your oil and tires, furnishes you with free battery water, and renders special services as you need them.

The oil companies depend on him as the independent merchant who distributes their products. He demands, and receives, continuously improved products with which to compete with his business rivals. He insists on reasonable prices that will move his merchandise in volume. His progressive attitude is one of the chief reasons why the oil industry has supplied you with better products at about the same prices over a long period of years.

It's a pleasure to pay this tribute to a neighbor, to thank him publicly for being such a friendly, dependable contact between the oil industry and its millions of customers. He is not on our payroll, but we couldn't do business without him.
